Your driving privilege and the registrations of motor vehicles owned by you will continue to be suspended beyond the mandatory period unless you: file with the Department and maintain for two (2) years from your conviction date, proof of financial responsibility (SR-22).

If this proof is not already on file, please mail the SR-22 to the Texas Department of Public Safety, PO Box 15999, Austin, TX 78761-5999. This suspension has resulted in the disqualification of all commercial driving privileges. An occupational or essential need driver license may not be issued for the operation of a commercial motor vehicle. You must surrender any valid Texas Commercial driver license in your possession. The license will be returned to you upon expiration of the suspension or revocation period.

Driving any motor vehicle upon the highways of this state while a license or privilege is invalid may result in criminal penalties and additional suspension action.

During the period of suspension you may keep and use your Texas non-commercial driver license for identification purposes only. Possession of the license does not establish authorization to drive.
